1. INTRODUCTION

---

1.1 Existing System

The Existing System it was divided in three parts Student Admission and Account and Payroll. Three of them work individually. Student admission works on web based. Account work on desktop based system and Payroll divided in desktop and web both applications.

1.2 Need for the New System

- Lengthy workflows

As the Institution grows, so does the workload and complexity for the staff that manages it exponentially.

Even though start-up Institution in the start-up period will often be able to cope with a free accounting system, or even get far with spreadsheets and email, an expanding company will sooner or later be hampered by slow manual manpower and cumbersome logistics.

Not being able to meet customer demand can potentially alleviate and slow down any business in an important growth phase.

- Increased operational efficiency

Investing in ERP software helps the Institution consolidate activities into a fully integrated application, simplifying workflows and increasing flexibility. The ERP application uses an overall integrated database, which accelerates response times and increases operational efficiency, ultimately ensuring the Institution's future success.

- Better accounting management and financial reporting

Control and overview of the financial part of our Institution is an essential factor in ensuring our Institution success through a growth phase. However, as time goes by and the Institution grows, the complexity of data can appear overwhelmingly without an efficient and centralized IT system.

It goes without saying that manual data entry will significantly inhibit productivity. An integrated ERP application can eliminate the need of the difficult data entry work, thus freeing resources for other tasks. A centralized ERP platform also increases the visibility of important data and therefore helps to create an overview of your Institution.

- Mobility and flexibility

With an ERP system, data from different sources and departments in the Institution is streamlined into one single platform. As flexibility and mobility are of major importance in the modern Education System, remote access to crucial data in the database is important and a crucial factor that saves the Institute both time and resources and ensures delivery of quality work within deadlines. Therefore, the possibility of mobile integration can be a crucial factor in selecting which ERP system you want to invest in.

A modern ERP solution can today handle multiple features by utilizing a centralized database that delivers accurate information for use no matter where in the world you are and on which device you use.

1.3 Objective of the New System

The objective of the ERP in Education System is to modernize and integrate Academic processes and systems. This “leapfrog” into the future will empower staff and students to access information and provide services through an intuitive and integrated interface, and ultimately aims to:

- Improve Service Experience
- Enhance Competitiveness
- Modernize Education System
- Automate Academic Solutions
- Increase Operating Efficiency
- Provide Access to Standardized College Data
- Mobility of Data
- Advanced Reporting

4. STUDENT ONLINE ADMISSION

---

4.1 Advantages of Online Admission

- Applicants' Convenience

One of the greatest advantages of the online application system is that applicants can choose to submit their applications at their convenience. All that is required is access to a computer and internet connectivity. Messy handwriting, lack of postal connectivity, delay in courier delivery etc. are unlikely to disrupt the application process. This is a great advantage to candidates in rural areas and candidates with disabilities.

- Logistics

No more running out of paper application forms, picking the right colour ink pens, illegible prints and wondering if the application has been received at all. The online application process offers university applicants a uniform platform for filling in their applications and also provides prompts on which fields are mandatory. The acknowledgement is almost immediate and the system user-friendly.

- Advantage to AGI

AGI is also at a major advantage when it comes to an online admission process. Quick access to student records and databases, efficient systems for filtering out candidates and processing of applications is possible through the online application process. The costs of processing applications and employing additional manpower during admissions are slashed with the implementation of an online application system.

- Increases Accuracy and Efficiency

AGI officials accepting thousands of paper applications each day at office counters understand that high fatigue and monotony involved in the paperwork is a catalyst for errors. Each error could cost students their academic career and educational prospects. The online admission system is highly reliable and efficient and eliminates chances of such errors.

- Demolishing Geography

Another great advantage of the online admission system is that it makes it possible for candidates from across the country and even abroad to apply to Indian universities without any hassles. It eliminates the inconveniences caused by ailments and exigencies, providing deserving candidates a convenience that has never before been available.
